LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, MAN CHARGED WITH DISTRIBUTION AND POSSESSION OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

LOUISVILLE, KY - A federal grand jury in Louisville has returned an indictment against Darrell Adwell, age 44, of Louisville, Kentucky, with distribution and possession of child pornography, U.S. Attorney David L. Huber of the Western District of Kentucky announced today.

The Indictment charges that on or about and between October 24, 2004, and November 8, 2004, Adwell distributed material that contained child pornography. The Indictment further charges that on or about May 10, 2006, Adwell knowingly possessed material that contained an image of child pornography.

In the event of a conviction, the maximum potential penalties are 10 years imprisonment, a $500,000 fine, and supervised release for life.

This case is being brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales launched Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims.
